

Monroe County Community College — Applied Technology & Apprenticeships Pathway

Online programs index for Monroe County Community College's Applied Technology & Apprenticeships Pathway. This landing page links to degree and certificate programs in Automotive Service Technology, Electrical Engineering Technology, Mechatronics, and Renewable Energy. It also connects students to registered apprenticeship opportunities and the Career Technology Center (CTC) in Monroe, Michigan.

How to use:

- Explore AAS and certificate programs listed under Applied Technology & Apprenticeships.
- Review details for specific programs such as Electrical Engineering or Mechatronics.
- Contact program coordinators or advisors for enrollment and apprenticeship information.
- Use this resource as a hub for all skilled trades and technical training offered by MCCC.

Last update noted by MCCC: 2025–2026 Catalog Edition

Open MCCC Applied Technology & Apprenticeships Page

Source: Monroe County Community College — Applied Technology & Apprenticeships Pathway
<https://www.monroeccc.edu/programs/electrical-engineering-technology>